Mr. Bill Fox
1207 Kelly Street
Vienna, Virginia

Dear Bill:

I was extremely unhappy at not being able to stop by Washington and visit with you on my trip to New York. However, it has now developed that the group producing the theme pamphlet for the fair, of which I am a member, will have to meet in Washington December 9-10. I know that you are in a state of flux as to housing but if things can be conveniently arranged, I would enjoy staying with you or at least having the opportunity to visit with you and your wife.

I hope the old Army routine isn't getting you down and send both of you the best regards of our entire family. John Allen Jr. is making strides toward eclipsing his never-do-well father.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
